

Do not allow the Consumer's Banking Association petition to go forward. The Indiana no-call law has been a God-send. It has removed the unberable irritant of annoying telemarketing calls from our lives. It would be unthinkable to take the step backwards such a petition as that proposed by CBA would be. Robert Doles